Are you an executive coach, corporate team leader, talent placement expert, or training and development professional?

If so, then you know what it's like to work in one of the most competitive and demanding industries. At some point in your career, you may find yourself asking:

- How can I assure that my organization is getting the cream of the crop from the pool of available talent?
- What tools can I invest in that will help my team enhance communication, improve productivity, and increase sales performance?
- Who can help me supplement my coaching program - so that my work resonates on a deeper, more impactful level?

Partner with Coach Merrilee Olson-Axtell of Touchstone Assessments, and get the clarity and direction you seek!

Touchstone Assessments proudly offers the Trimetrix System - a unique job benchmarking and talent identification tool that delivers concrete, objective evidence to support your hiring selections and help you align your organization for the most profitable outcome.

Areas where we can help you make an impact:

- Talent recruitment
- Individual coaching
- Leadership strategies
- Team performance enhancement
- Communication challenges
- Talent development and retention
